

Photography Sharing Session

The Photography Interest Group (PoIG) has organized a sharing session in January 2017. In this talk, Catkaling, an award-winning photographer, will share the stories behind her latest series "Fireworks Alive", and the photography skills employed to create these beautiful photographs.

About the Photographer

As a passionate mountaineer, Catkaling has conquered Mount Kilimanjaro, the highest in Africa, and Mount Elbrus, the highest in Europe. The same courage drove her into the realm of creative photography. She has a special way with both photography and the written word. Poetry suffuses her images, and her words paint vivid pictures. Together, they blend into something wondrously new and evocative. The originality of her work has been recognized both locally and internationally with prizes and grants. Her previous publications include "A Cup of Chinese Wisdom" and "Bubble Instant".
