

Merry Monday

- Secrets to food and wine pairing

10 April 2017

While there are no hard and fast rules on matching food and wine, it is not always easy to choose the right wine to complement the right food to make the entire dining experience more enjoyable. Especially with today's ever increasing options for both wines and a variety of food choice, the pairing decisions can be staggering.

At the April Merry Monday, speaker Roy W.G Choi will show you the basic principle of food matching by tasting different types of grapes. To give you an unforgettable tasting experience, Roy has selected some unusual food, such as caviar, preserved egg and Sichuan saliva chicken (四川口水雞) to go with wines. Come and join this delicious tasting journey under the guidance of Roy.

Sign up NOW to learn how to make wine choices that will complement the flavors of different food.
