

Legal update on insolvency case law developments

About the topic

Insolvency practice has faced some significant changes over the past year. In addition to legislative amendments, the courts in Hong Kong and the Commonwealth have continued to pour out illuminating judgments that have important implications for practitioners. In this seminar, Ludwig Ng of ONC Lawyers will share his views on the most notable cases that have been decided over the course of the past year and explain their significance to practitioners. Important cases on the following topics will be discussed:

- Cross-border Insolvency
- Schemes of Arrangement
- Void dispositions
- Enforcing examination order by contempt proceedings
