About the speaker

Nigel K. Meeson QC is a Partner and Head of the Asia Disputes & Restructuring Group ("ADRG") in the Hong Kong office of Conyers Dill & Pearman. The ADRG provides Bermuda, British Virgin Islands and Cayman Islands litigation advice to clients in the Far East; ensuring they have access to fully coordinated litigation advice and services provided by a seamless and comprehensive team across jurisdictions and time zones.

Nigel joined Conyers in 2007 to start the litigation practice in the Cayman Islands which he has developed into one of the leading Cayman litigation practices. His practice focuses on insolvency and restructuring, trust litigation, corporate and shareholder disputes, insurance, asset tracing and international commercial litigation. He also accepts appointments to act as leading counsel, expert witness, arbitrator and mediator.

Prior to joining Conyers, Nigel practiced for almost twenty-five years at the Bar in London as one of London's top commercial litigators before moving to the Cayman Islands.

Nigel is ranked Band 1 in Chambers Global, with a client noting that he is a "world-class lawyer and one of the finest litigators I have met – he has incredible business sense and a practical mind."

"Who's Who Legal notes Nigel as having a "highly sophisticated" practice and that sources report he "always delivers."

Nigel has authored various books and articles for leading industry publications, including International Corporate Rescue and INSOL International.
