About Anthony Lau

Anthony is a Hong Kong based photography enthusiast, a LEAN Six Sigma black belt business process improvement expert and father to two kids. Anthony's brother introduced him to the world of photography when he was a primary student, but he discovered his passion when his first child was born 11 years ago. Nowadays, Anthony would not hesitate to spend eight-hours riding horses in Xinjiang for location shooting. He loves all aspects of photography and videography, but found himself helplessly captivated by the interaction of strangers with surrounding nature and cities.

His road to the National Geographic awards began in 2014 when a famous lens company showcased his work at the 2014 Photokina in Cologne, Germany. Since then, Anthony has participated in many other competitions worldwide, some of his achievements in said competitions are featured below:

2014 – 2016 UK Travel Photographer of the Year: Finalist in HD Video Category

2016 UK Travel Photographer of the Year: Finalist in Best Single Image in a Profile

2016 International Photography Awards: Honorable Mention in both People/Culture and Travel/Tourism Categories

2016 Monochrome Awards: Honorable Mention in People Category

2016 National Geographic Travel Photographer of the Year Contest: Grand Award and People Category Winner

2016/17 Fine Art Photography Awards: Nominee in Abstract and Travel Categories

Grand Prize Winner: Winter Horseman
