

CPD Programme - From CPA to CPA Plus (FCCP)

Re-run

Due to the treacherous, complex business environment nowadays, a holistic and macro business mindset is a must in decision making in the domains of finance and investment. In order to serve your clients to their real needs and provide corporations with professional advice and services, in addition to having a deep recognition of your own professions, successful financial professionals also need to comprehend the crucial factors that affect business performance.

This programme is tailored for financial professionals who want to build up their systematic business mindset, from financial investment theory to practical application. Combining with financial and investment decision-making methods and tools, their analytical competence will be strengthened on top of their professions. The teaching method adopts the Business Engineering approach to establish business mindset for financial professionals, which has been adopted by a project funded by the World Bank and National Institute of Accounting in the PRC.
