ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Ms Rose Kay

Head of Greater Bay Area, Commercial Banking
Standard Chartered Bank

Ms Kay has 20 years of experience in commercial and investment banking. Prior to her current role, Ms Kay was the Head of RMB Solutions, Greater China and North Asia, where she was responsible for driving the RMB strategy and developing product solutions arising from the RMB internationalization and opening of China's capital markets. She also advised overseas corporate and institutional clients on China's cross border financing, investment and liquidity management solutions.

Before joining Standard Chartered Bank, Ms Kay worked in the debt capital market, equity capital market and convertible bond market where she led and executed many transactions for Asian companies.

Ms Kay holds MBA, MSc, LLB and BEng degrees. She is an Adjunct Assistant Professor of Finance at The Chinese University of Hong Kong, where she has taught Capital Markets courses of the EMBA and Master of Finance programs since 2010. She is also teaching the Master of Science in Financial Mathematics in The Hong Kong University of Science and Technology.

Ms Kay is Standard Chartered Bank's country champion in Hong Kong for employee volunteering and is responsible for strengthening staff engagement in volunteering and giving back to the community.
