

Accounting and Financial Reporting

Live webinar: Financial Reporting for Reinsurance Contracts Held under HKFRS 17 Insurance Contracts

COURSE HIGHLIGHTS:

HKFRS 17 Insurance Contracts (effective 1 January 2023) sets out the principles for accounting of insurance and reinsurance contracts issued, as well as reinsurance contracts held (ceded reinsurance). HKFRS 17 requires the principles to be applied uniformly to all the contracts in its scope. However, the nature of ceded reinsurance could pose more complex challenges that need a body of dedicated HKFRS 17 requirements to ensure a consistent and transparent accounting treatment applies to these contracts. In this live webinar, participants will be able to get:

- an overview of the HKFRS 17 accounting for reinsurance contracts held;
- an illustration to explain the principles set out in HKFRS 17 for reinsurance contracts held;
- an understanding of areas where the accounting principles for reinsurance contracts held differ from that for the direct business; and
- presentation and disclosures required for reinsurance contracts held.
