

Accounting and Financial Reporting

E-learning: Year-end reminders for insurers – Preparing for the year after implementation of HKFRS 17 Insurance Contracts

COURSE HIGHLIGHTS:

For many insurers, the first financial statements to which HKFRS 17 Insurance Contracts has been applied have been audited and issued. Many lessons have been learnt, but there is still work to be done, in particular in cases where the final end-state solutions remain outstanding.

In this e-learning, the speakers will share key reminders and practical insights to help insurers prepare for their 2024 annual reporting. Participants can expect updates on the following topics relevant to the second year of financial reporting under HKFRS 17:

- Topical interpretation issues and reminders of relevant accounting requirements;
- Practical experience from implementation projects and first-year HKFRS 17 audits;
- Observations from financial reports published by insurers; and
- Matters to watch out for in the upcoming annual reporting cycle.

Details of the e-learning are as follows:
