

Accounting and Financial Reporting

E-learning: Common application issues of HKFRS 9, 15 and 16

COURSE HIGHLIGHTS:

HKFRS 9 Financial Instruments and HKFRS 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers became effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2018, and HKFRS 16 Leases became effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2019. Since then, regulators have been closely monitoring their application and have identified several issues that preparers and auditors need to be aware of.

This course aims to cover the common application issues of HKFRS 9, 15 and 16, including those identified by regulators. It will also delve into the relevant agenda decisions published by the IFRS Interpretations Committee and provide insights into the application of financial reporting standards.

Furthermore, the course will provide updates on the ongoing projects of the International Accounting Standards Board, which include the Post-implementation Review (PIR) of IFRS 9—Impairment and PIR of IFRS 15.
