

Sustainability Insider - Webinar series: Carbon Credits and HKEX Core Climate – A New Chapter in Climate Finance

Programme Code: EWEB25080701

As global demand for climate action intensifies, carbon markets are rapidly evolving – and financial hubs like Hong Kong are set to play a key role.

Join us for a focused webinar exploring the latest developments in carbon credits and the HKEX Core Climate platform. Mr. Ken Chiu, Head of Carbon and ESG Products, Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited (HKEX), will guide participants through the fundamentals of carbon credit trading, including the differences between regulated and voluntary markets, quality standards, and the mechanics of trading and verification. The session will also spotlight HKEX Core Climate, an easy-access, one-stop, integrated carbon marketplace that connects capital with climate-related products and opportunities in Hong Kong, Mainland China, Asia and beyond, which facilitates trading, settlement, custody, and retirement of high-quality carbon credits.

Whether you are a corporate sustainability leader, institutional investor, or just beginning to explore carbon markets, this webinar will offer valuable insights into how carbon trading supports broader sustainability goals – and how HKEX Core Climate may shape the future of climate finance in Hong Kong and beyond.

This session will:

- Provide members and participants with firsthand knowledge of the carbon credit landscape in Hong Kong and Asia
- Enable HKEX to share insights on the HKEX Core Climate platform
- Address audience questions related to carbon credits and HKEX Core Climate
