About the speakers and panellists

Benjamin Chan, JP

Commissioner of Inland Revenue

Mr. Chan is the Commissioner of Inland Revenue. He joined the Inland Revenue Department (IRD) as an Assistant Assessor in 1998 and was appointed to his current post in October 2024. During his career with the IRD, Mr. Chan has handled work of different nature including tax assessment, tax audit and investigation, stamp duty, tax appeals, technical research and international taxation. He is the head of the Hong Kong delegation in treaty negotiations and takes charge of the work relating to BEPS 2.0 and other technical legislative amendments. He is a member of HKICPA.

Michael Olesnicky

Chairman, The Joint Liaison Committee on Taxation

Michael is the chair of the Joint Liaison Committee on Taxation. He served as the Asia Pacific chair of Baker McKenzie's tax practice from 2000 to 2014, and was a senior adviser in KPMG's tax group to 2019. He has more than 25 years' experience advising on corporate tax, wealth management, trust planning and estate succession matters.

Eva Chow

Director, Hong Kong Tax Practice, KPMG China

Eva is a director in KPMG's Hong Kong tax practice, focusing on Hong Kong and international tax matters. She is experienced in tax compliance and advisory services to clients in the financial services sector.

Over the years Eva has advised various international and Chinese financial institutions on business tax issues relevant to their operations in Hong Kong, including FATCA, CRS and the US Qualified Intermediary regime. Eva has led FATCA and CRS projects for major banking and insurance groups in the ASPAC region including discussion with tax authorities. Eva has written articles for professional journals and is a frequent speaker on tax transparency for various business associations.

Polly Wan

Tax Partner, Global Business Tax Services, Deloitte China

Polly Wan is a tax partner of Deloitte, focusing on China, Hong Kong and cross-border tax and business advisory services. She is leading the Tax Controversy team of Deloitte Hong Kong

Polly is experienced in advising corporations on entrance strategies, cross-border investment structures and local compliance. In particular, she has assisted clients in the planning and application of treaty benefits. She is also experienced in handling controversial tax matters in HK, including field audit and investigation and IRD enquiries. Polly has many successful cases, helping clients in defending their tax positions and reaching compromise settlements with the IRD with substantial savings on tax and penalties, e.g. capital vs revenue gain, onshore/ offshore claim and deductions.

Polly has provided China and HK tax advisory services to many multinational enterprises and private-owned enterprise in relation to tax due diligence, IPO, including pre-IPO health checks, rectification of prior year tax positions, compliance review, structure planning, etc.

She is the co-chairman of the Tax Sub-committee and a committee member of ACCA.

About the speakers and panellists (cont.)

Sophia Chan

Member, Taxation Faculty Executive Committee, and Partner, Tax Services, PwC Hong Kong

Sophia is a tax partner specialising in Hong Kong and international tax. The projects she has worked on include corporate and operation structuring for initial public offerings, cross-border transactions, tax due diligence reviews and tax disputes and resolution. In recent years, Sophia has also helped her multinational clients with a global business presence to prepare for the rollout of BEPS Pillar 2.

Sophia's clients are mainly from the consumer markets and technology sectors and she has worked on various tax consulting projects for these clients including:

- Assisted a multinational corporation to structure their family office in Hong Kong and obtained the first positive ruling for tax concessions for family-owned investment holding vehicles in Hong Kong;
- Assisted multinational corporations to assess the impact of BEPS Pillar 2 on their groups and to plan for restructuring of their business models and holding structures to prepare for the changes; and
- Acted as a sell-side tax advisor for a multinational logistics client in a significant merger and acquisition transaction of over HK$20 billion, and the pre- and post-deal restructuring.
