MyCareer: From Mainland to Hong Kong – An Accountant's Journey

[Event code: ESEMYM25081101]

Speaker
Ms. Celine Gong
APAC Tax Manager
Knorr-bremse

Ms. Gong came to Hong Kong in 2013 to pursue her master degree at The Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK). After graduating, she decided to stay and begin her career in Hong Kong. She started at PwC, where she gained extensive experience in tax advisory and progressed to the role of Tax Manager. Following that, she transitioned into the in-house tax team of a multinational corporation, continuing to broaden her expertise in corporate taxation. With approximately 11 years of professional experience in Hong Kong, she has developed a deep understanding of the local business environment and international tax practices. In addition to her full-time role, she also serves as a mentor for CUHK's Master of Accountancy (MAcc) program, where she provides guidance to students on career development and professional growth.

Speaker
Mr. Channing Song
Senior, Strategy and Transactions
EY

Mr. Song is a Senior Accountant at EY's Strategy and Transactions Department, focusing on developing and analysing business valuation models for transactions and financial reporting purposes (e.g., fair value measurement, impairment test, purchase price allocation). He is specialised in complex securities valuation, which involves the assessment of fair value of multiple classes of shares and convertible instruments. Prior to this role, he worked in EY's Financial Services Assurance Department for three years, where he provided audit service mainly for a major Chinese state-owned financial institution.

Born and raised in Yunnan province, Mr. Song came to Hong Kong where he obtained his bachelor degree in international journalism and Master's degree in professional accounting and corporate governance. He has been a member of Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountant and earned his Chartered Financial Analyst designation since 2024.

Speaker

Ms. Becky Tam
Private Placement Life Insurance General Manager
Nexara Capital

Ms. Tam has 20 years of experience in the insurance industry, including InsurTech, life insurance, reinsurance company and Big 4 accounting firm. She is now a slash wearing multiple hats: constructing and offering insurance solutions to crypto HNW and tech companies, working as a singing bowl therapist, as well as a counsellor.

Ms. Tam established the first crypto insurance practice in Asia at OneDegree, a Hong Kong based digital insurer. The brand "OneInfinity" continues to provide an option for crypto/tech companies other than the only crypto insurance market at London. She started in OneDegree as Chief Risk Officer and Responsible Key Risk Person in the Insurance Authority. Before joining OneDegree as founding team member, Ms. Tam worked in multi-national insurance corporates including Sun Life and Swiss Re, and Big 4 accounting firm PwC.

Speaker

Mr. Cameron Wong
Founder and CEO
xBeeFi

Mr. Wong is the founder and CEO of xBeeFi, a company dedicated to solving real-world problems with blockchain technology, recently in the process of closing a pre-seed fundraising at US$8M FDV.

His passion for the industry ignited during his time at EY's Financial Services Office, where he audited a leading crypto trader. He then joined Crypto.com, where he built the financial reporting team from scratch for their card business. As a product approver, he held a critical advisory role, gaining visibility into all Crypto.com products prior to launch. Later, at Animoca Brands, Cameron transformed their ERP system before being promoted to Group Financial Controller, overseeing financial reporting. With a strong "builder" mentality, Cameron left Animoca Brands to found xBeeFi (previously Prodds), focusing on practical blockchain applications.

MyCareer as a Young Legal Professional

[Event code: ESEMYM24070301]

Speaker
Mr. Conrad Ho
Solicitor

Mr. Ho brings over 15 years of expertise to the table, stemming from his alma mater, the Hong Kong University of Science and Technology - professional accounting faculty.

Mr. Ho's journey commenced as a tax accountant at a Big-Four international accounting firm. Transitioning to law, he delved into LLB studies and completed the PCLL with the University of Hong Kong, recognizing the intertwined nature of business and law, fueled by his fervor for the written word. He has accumulated experience in both local and international law firms.

Mr. Ho's trajectory led him to specialize as an investment funds lawyer, navigating both retail and private funds landscapes. Presently, he serves as an in-house solicitor within the legal and compliance division of an investment bank. His focus spans various primary market matters, encompassing funds formation, downstream investment aspects, corporate governance, and internal controls across diverse jurisdictions, including the Cayman Islands, BVI, and Hong Kong, etc.

In addition to his professional endeavors, Mr. Ho is passionate about mentorship. He regularly shares his insights and experiences with students and young practitioners, guiding them on career planning.

Mr. Ho is admitted to practice as a solicitor in Hong Kong, and is a member of the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Speaker
Mr. Marco Yip
Trainee Solicitor

Mr. Yip obtained a bachelor's degree in accounting and finance from a local university and joined the audit industry for 3 years, mainly serving commercial banks. He then decided to develop a second career in law upon being admitted as a CPA (non-practising).

Mr. Yip thereafter obtained a JD degree and completed PCLL, during which he equipped himself by accepting invitations from course instructors to assist in conducting legal research. Such work covers various topics and for a wide range of purposes, from formulating grounds of appeal in a homicide case to writing a chapter in a book commenting on the impact of regulatory framework on the development of virtual banks in Hong Kong.

Mr. Yip is currently a trainee in a small and medium-sized law firm. He specialises in litigation work, with experience in personal injury claims, criminal defence, matrimonial proceedings, and general civil actions, for instance, contractual and land disputes.

Meanwhile, he also has a great interest in pro bono services and further studies. He teaches primary and secondary school students as a mock trial coach for The Society of Rehabilitation and Crime Prevention from time to time. At the same time, he is pursuing a master's degree in law.
