

Accounting and Financial Reporting

E-learning: Tackling Common Financial Reporting Issues for Financial Instruments

COURSE HIGHLIGHTS:

In today's dynamic financial landscape, reporting for financial instruments under HKFRS Accounting Standards has become increasingly complex. Ongoing financial innovation, shifting market conditions, heightened regulatory expectations and growing demand for transparent risk disclosures have contributed to these challenges.

This e-learning is designed to provide you with both technical knowledge and practical guidance to address these challenges in the following key areas:

- Common Pitfalls in Distinguishing Between Financial Liability and Equity under HKAS 32
 - Examine common contractual terms of specific financial instruments, including perpetual instruments, preference shares and convertible bonds, and understand their implications for classification
- Common Challenges in Accounting for Financial Instruments under HKFRS 9
 - Learn how to account for financial instruments with features that introduce variability in contractual cash flows
 - Gain insights into holders' accounting for debt instruments measured at fair value through other comprehensive income under the 'hold to collect and sell' business model
- Key Reminders on Risk Disclosures under HKFRS 7
