About the topic

With more companies listing on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong, HKICPA members are increasingly called upon to serve as Independent Non-Executive Directors (INEDs) or audit committee members.

In this seminar, our speakers, Mr. Alexander Tai, a seasoned INED with extensive market experience, and Ms. Heidi Lee, a highly regarded lawyer with a strong and established track record in capital market transactions, share their first-hand experience of the INED role. They will provide practical insights into fulfilling board responsibilities effectively and discuss how directors can remain vigilant in an increasingly complex regulatory landscape, supported by expert legal guidance on securities compliance.
