

Accounting and Financial Reporting E-learning: Unlocking HKFRS 18 – An Overview of New Presentation and Disclosure Requirements

COURSE HIGHLIGHTS:

In July 2024, the HKICPA issued HKFRS 18 Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements, which is effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2027.

HKFRS 18 replaces HKAS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements and introduces the following three sets of new requirements to improve entities' reporting of financial performance and give investors a better basis for analysing and comparing entities.

- Subtotal in the statement of profit or loss;
- Management-defined performance measures; and
- Grouping of information.

All stakeholders in all industries that apply HKFRS will be impacted by this new standard. The changes introduced by HKFRS 18 will affect how entities present and disclose information in the financial statements, the information available to investors, and the extent of information subject to assurance by auditors.

To prepare for this change, entities are encouraged to start preparing for the implementation as soon as possible and enroll in this e-learning which will provide an overview of HKFRS 18 and cover the key aspects of the new requirements.
