

YOUNG MEMBERS CONFERENCE 2026

The future-ready CPAs:

Leading through digital frontiers and new markets

About the conference

New technologies, new assets, new possibilities — the next chapter of accounting is full of opportunity. Join the Young Members Conference 2026 to explore how young CPAs can stay ahead in an AI-driven world and seize growth across emerging sectors.

The conference will highlight how young members can harness the opportunities of AI and unlock the value of the intellectual property economy. Through engaging panel discussions and expert insights, the programme will inspire young CPAs to lead with confidence in the next era of the profession.

Returning to a physical format this year, the conference also provides a valuable platform for young members to connect, exchange ideas and expand their professional network.
