Live webinar: HKFRS 13 Fair Value Measurement: What Preparers and Auditors need to get right

COURSE HIGHLIGHTS:

HKFRS 13 establishes a single framework for measuring fair value and introduces extensive disclosure requirements. While the principles are well established, preparers and auditors often face practical challenges in applying the Standard, particularly in areas involving significant judgement and valuation uncertainty. This webinar will provide a practical refresher on HKFRS 13, explore common application questions and discuss audit issues observed in practice. The course will also highlight key areas of regulatory focus and the findings most frequently identified in inspections and reviews.
