EVENT OVERVIEW

The Ethics Conference serves as a flagship forum for discussing the ethical landscape of the accounting profession. Featuring seasoned professional accountants, independent non-executive directors, a forensic expert and a chief corruption prevention official, the conference will explore how ethics, innovation and governance intersect in today's profession. Through diverse practitioner, governance and regulatory perspectives, participants will gain valuable insights into ethical challenges, effective governance practices and integrity safeguards. These discussions will help strengthen your ability to exercise sound ethical judgement and build resilience in your daily professional activities.
