ABOUT THE SEMINAR

Green bonds are the fastest growing segment of the capital markets and much in the news, as governments and corporations seek new ways to finance projects that reduce carbon emission linked to climate change, as well as other kinds of environmental degradation.

At the seminar, Mr. Jonathan Drew of HSBC will explain the key characteristics of green bonds, their potential benefits to issuers and investors and implications for the Hong Kong capital market. He will also share his insights about the market outlook of this new financial instrument.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Mr. Jonathan Drew

Managing Director, Infrastructure and Real Estate Group
HSBC

Mr. Drew has been involved in successful transactions across a wide range of sectors, by advising and arranging finance for projects to produce and deliver renewable and non-renewable energy and transport people and resources from source to point of consumption, as well as infrastructure projects in social and educational sectors. These transactions have involved supporting projects, corporations and institutions to approach various financial markets and structuring innovative and tailored products including green bonds and loans to meet large and specific clients' needs with very distinct financial and regulatory characteristics.

Prior to working in Hong Kong, Mr. Drew started his banking career in London and Latin America with a wide exposure on raising capital for large scale projects in the Middle East.

Mr. Drew received his MA in Economics from Cambridge University in England and is also qualified as a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales.
