

China tax controversy and resolutions

Programme Code: SCPD17022701

In recent years, China tax authorities have been stepping up efforts in taxpayer risk assessment, tax audits and tax data analysis in order to strengthen the tax administration and collection. It is not uncommon to see that advanced technology skills are applied in many cases and taxpayers are found non-compliances in different areas. In this seminar, the speakers shall give you an overview on the tax collection environment in China, and discuss the common tax controversy issues and dispute resolution strategy with cases sharing.
