Dance Fun Night

About the competition

The competition is divided into two categories:

Latin: Cha Cha Cha & Rumba

Ballroom: Waltz & Tango

- Members interested to enter into the competition should submit the competition registration form with particulars of his/her partner, who can be a non-member.
- A contestant can join more than one category with different partner.
- As this is a competition for members, their score will take up the majority of the total score.
- There is no restriction on gender for competition entry. In other words, a couple can be in the same gender or different gender.
- There is no fixed choreography or syllabus. Judges will look for members' posture; timing; line; hold; poise; musicality and expression; foot and leg action; lead and follow and floor craft. Judges' decisions are final and no appeal will be entertained.
- The duration of each dance is approximately 2 minutes.
- The entire competition including prize presentation will take place at the Dance Fun Night on 14 October 2017. First, second and third place will be awarded with trophies/medals.
- No entry fee is required to enter into this members' competition.
- Deadline for entry is 25 September 2017.
- The competition will be cancelled if there are less than 4 entries for each category. Subject to the final number of entries, the competition may be divided into preliminary and final rounds to be held in the same evening.
