

Members' Forum for PAIBs

FULL

About the forum

Join the Professional Accountants In Business ("PAIB") annual members' forum to meet with the Institute's President, Chief Executive and the PAIB Committee Chairman, who will apprise members of the latest developments in topical issues, both international and local, and services and activities provided by the Institute and PAIB Committee.

The forum also provides an opportunity for PAIBs to exchange views with peers on the various topical issues affecting the accountancy profession, as well as their expectations of the Institute through group discussion on subjects including:

1. Impact of artificial intelligence;
2. Impact of the new international ethics code;
3. Importance of governance and risk management;
4. Institute's support and services to PAIBs, including specialist interest groups; and
5. Image and branding of the profession.
