

Update on Data Protection and Cyber Security Law in China

Programme code: SCPD18102402

About the topic

Many Hong Kong accounting and insolvency cases have cross-border elements and may involve data centers in China and/or the custody and use of large amounts of personal data. Hence, understanding the developments in relation to the law around data protection and cyber security in China is increasingly important for accounting and insolvency practitioners.

At this event, Mr. Allen Ting, Senior Legal Counsel, Legal Compliance of the Management Department, Huawei Technologies, and formerly of the Office of the Privacy Commissioner for Personal Data and the ICAC in Hong Kong, will share his knowledge and experience on this topic.
