

HKICPA Anti-Money Laundering Workshop

About the topic

The Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorist Financing (Financial Institutions) (Amendment) Ordinance 2018 became effective on 1 March 2018. Accountants working in professional firms, lawyers and trust or company service providers, among others, are required to conduct customer due diligence and record keeping when they carry out particular kinds of transactions for their clients. Failure to comply with the new requirements could result in disciplinary action being taken. Therefore, it is important for accountants and other relevant professionals to equip themselves for these requirements.

Given the demand, the workshop in Cantonese will rerun on 8 December. It aims to provide members with essential knowledge about financial and "white-collar" crimes and AML methods relevant to professional practices. Broad topics to be covered in the workshop are:

- Roles of professional accountants, auditors, lawyers and other gatekeepers in preventing financial and "white collar" crime
- Common fraud schemes
- Stages and methods of money laundering
- Latest financial crime and anti-money laundering regulations
- Detection and prevention of financial crime/fraud
- Brief introduction of financial crime investigation: how to handle the investigation process?
- Court case studies
