

The new Mainland China foreign investment law and tax issues relevant to MNCs

Programme Code: SCPD19080701

About the topic

Foreign Investment Law was adopted at the Second Session of the 13th National People's Congress and is scheduled to come into effect as of January 1, 2020. The introduction of the new law marks a fundamental change in Mainland China's foreign business system. It redefines "Foreign Investment" and "Foreign-invested Enterprise" and clears pre-entry national treatment and negative list management system.

At this seminar, the speakers will introduce some main contents and highlights in the new law and will cover the following topics:

- Major changes and highlights of the new law
- Impacts on foreign-invested enterprises and actions that need to be taken
- Tax matters to consider for Mainland China market entry
- Opportunities and challenges for multinational companies going forward
