Notes for performers

1. Each performer/performing unit (max. 4 in a group) can perform one song in each category.
2. Each song should not be longer than 5 minutes.
3. Medley and concert version are not allowed.
4. Musical instruments are allowed subject to available technical support from the venue. Performers are required to contact HKICPA directly regarding the arrangement in advance.
5. In the event of song duplication, involved parties will be invited to re-select their songs. Once the performing songs are confirmed, no further changes will be entertained.
6. All performing units must provide the instrumental music files (MMO with no vocal) to be played at the concert. Please send the MMO file or download link to HKICPA by email on or before the submission deadline listed in point 10 below. NO visual aid will be provided for performers.
7. Each performer/performing unit is entitled up to 4 tickets. No ticket is required for performers.
8. Each audience can apply for a maximum of 2 tickets, while priority will be given to performers.
9. There is no dressing room at the venue.
10. Rehearsal session is available on the same day prior to the concert with details to be announced. Due to limited time available on event day, each performing unit will be given approximately 2.5 minutes to rehearse.
11. Important dates:
 - Singing performance registration: 19 August 2019
 - Music files (MMO) submission: 22 August 2019
 - Rehearsal and concert: 7 September 2019
