

HKFRS 16 Leases: Update and Practical Considerations

Programme Code: SCPD19100802

HKFRS 16 Leases has become effective for accounting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2019. The new standard does not only result in practical challenges for financial reporting, but also the way how businesses are managed. In this seminar, the two speakers will share different perspectives on the key issues in implementing the new standard and practical insights on how to handle such issues, based on their respective experience as practicing accountant and experienced executive in the retail industry.

After joining this seminar, participants will gain knowledge about:

- The key challenges for financial reporting brought about by the new standard
- The impacts of the new standard on businesses beyond financial reporting
- Practical insights on how to handle related issues including some organizational and behavioral aspects
