Rules and Match Format

The tournament is divided into three categories:

- Men's Singles
- Men's Doubles
- Ladies' Singles

Basic rules:

1. Each preliminary match consists of 5 games with deuce sudden death (receiver's choice). The first to win 5 games will be the winner of the match.
2. The final match will be a 6 game set with deuce sudden death (receiver's choice). A tennis competitor can only close out the match when leading by two or more games. If the game score is tied at 6 all, the match will require a tiebreaker. In this case, the first player to receive 7 points, with a two point advantage, will win the match.
3. If the final match cannot be finished 15 minutes before the end of the tournament (i.e. 5:45 pm), one final game will be played. The Champion will be the player who has won the greater number of games in the set.
4. All players must arrive at the tennis court and check-in 15 minutes before the tournament / match starts (i.e. 12:45 pm). If any player is no show or late for 2 minutes after the match started, he/she will be determined as walkover and will be disqualified.
5. 3 new balls will be provided for each match.
6. A 3 minutes warm-up is allowed before each match.
7. Players must be full members of HKICPA. Students are not eligible to join the tournament.
8. Any argument or unsettled dispute will be judged by the umpires / coaches on behalf of HKICPA.

The Institute reserves the right to change the format, schedule and rules of the match as and when required without prior notice.
