Best Corporate Governance Awards series: Understanding the latest practices on Risk Management and Internal control

About the topic

The Institute has been organising the Best Corporate Governance Awards (BCGA) since 2000 and they are regarded as very exacting and prestigious awards, as well as an accurate benchmark of Hong Kong's current corporate governance standards among listed companies and public sector organisations. Risk management and internal control (RM & IC) are key areas in the BCGA. If implemented effectively, good RM & IC can help safeguard a business and instil greater confidence in investors and stakeholders. The speakers in this e-seminar have extensive experience in advising on RM & IC practices.

The topics they will cover include the following:

- Latest development in corporate governance & risk management
- RM & IC practices
- Implementation challenges & key success factors of effective risk management system
- Frequently asked questions
- Application in practice – Risk management in digital flow
