

THE CPA CONFERENCE 2021: TRANSCENDING TOGETHER

About the conference

The COVID-19 pandemic has ravaged economies around the world, disrupted supply chains, and changed organizational behaviours. The lessons learnt from the pandemic will shape CPAs and their organizations' development as they leverage the arsenal of skills and resources they developed and deployed to navigate this global crisis.

Come and join the Institute's debut conference for both CPAs in business and practice, which provides a platform for speakers to share and inspire Institute members on the latest trend and development relating to the accounting profession and the business world.

Themed "Transcending together", the conference will explore the business lessons learnt from the pandemic, the urgent need for digital transformation, the future of the finance function, as well as the evolving skill sets and the path forward for the accounting profession.
