

Live webinar:

ESG and Company Valuation: An Investment Perspective

Programme Code: EWEB22082401

Webinar Highlights

Environmental, Social and Governance ("ESG") has gradually become one of the key factors to assess companies' value and performance by investors. How to make use of the available ESG information for evaluation, and how to stay competitive in the capital market by leveraging ESG, have been the trending topics that are widely discussed by investors and business executives.

This webinar will cover:

- ESG and company valuation – The positive correlation
- How ESG performance affects companies' valuation
- How to make use of ESG data and ratings for investment decision
- How companies can improve their ESG ratings and performances

This live webinar encourages interactive-learning with a real-time Q&A session providing opportunities for participants to explore the subject in more detail and ask questions.
