Visit to Legislative Council Complex

(for young members)

The Legislative Council (LegCo) Complex is the first purpose-built building to house the Legislature of Hong Kong. The Complex, which has a construction floor area of almost 45,000 m^2, comprises the Council Block, the Office Block, and the adjacent open space area, namely the LegCo Square and the LegCo Garden.

To learn more about the work of LegCo and the facilities within the building, participants of the guided tour will have a chance to visit the video corner, exhibition cum photo-taking area, hall of history, public gallery of the chamber, observation area of conference rooms and the education galleries.
