About the Speakers

Mr. Allan Wong CPA
Senior Auditor
Audit Commission

Mr. Allan Wong is currently a Senior Auditor at the Audit Commission of the HKSAR. He is a member of the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants and a member of the Hong Kong Institution of Engineers.

Mr. Wong has served in the Audit Commission for over ten years, mainly engaging in value for money audits on a number of government policy areas, including commerce and industry, education, employment and labour, as well as information technology and broadcasting. He is also responsible for technical administrative work such as quality assurance, and staff training and development.

Before joining the Audit Commission, Mr. Wong had worked at a local telecommunication company for over ten years, during which he had been posted to various departments to take on different areas of work, including network planning and design, network management centre operations, process and quality control, network product marketing as well as overseas business development. He had also served as the Personal Assistant to the Managing Director.

Mr. Wong graduated from the University of Hong Kong with a degree of Bachelor of Engineering in Computer Engineering. He then attained a degree of Master of Science in Information Engineering at the Chinese University of Hong Kong and a degree of Master of Business Administration at the City University of Hong Kong.

Ms. May Wan CPA
Auditor
Audit Commission

Ms. Wan is an Auditor at the Audit Commission of the HKSAR. She has served in the Commission for more than ten years and has gained exposure to various disciplines of auditing from her posts in several divisions of the department throughout the years.

Upon joining the department, Ms. Wan was engaged in certification audits of government accounts (e.g. General Revenue Account and the Innovation and Technology Fund) under the Regularity Audit Division. She was then posted to two Value for Money Audit Divisions to perform value for money audits of different areas of public service (e.g. environmental hygiene, health, environmental protection and capital works projects) to examine into the economy, efficiency and effectiveness with which the audited bodies have discharged their functions. In her current post under the Corporate Services Division, she is responsible for handling matters relating to Public Accounts Committee's proceedings, technical audit and training programmes, among other duties.

Before joining the Audit Commission, Ms. Wan had worked in the private sector specialising in corporate restructuring and liquidation, forensic and litigation support.
